Nov.4-Reagan Wins. One year captivity for hostages in Iran.

Republican administration
to dominate
new congress

The tension of voter indecision has eased, the fervor of crowds has calmed, and now the public will sit back and judge the incoming administration. After constant and incredibly close polls and percentages between Carter and Reagan, Reagan won with an overwhelming landslide. The nation has placed its bets on the Reagan-Bush platform for new answers to burning issues.

Hollins College

Not to be mistaken for Rollins or Holland. Located in Roanoke, Virginia, the Star City of the South. Total enrollment for the '80-81 school year was 917, with 66% of the students from out of state and 2% from abroad. Tuition alone was $4,650 and is rising.

The basic pattern of life at Hollins is to work hard during the week and party on the weekends. Road trips are a regular and no place is too far for Hollins girls.

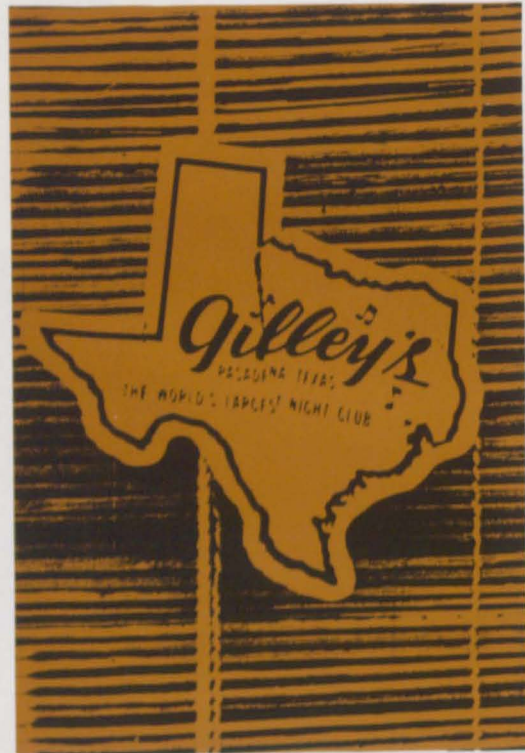

Favorite topics for conversation among students range from politics, art, men, books, diets, post-graduation plans, profs, to what's new at Kay's Cabin. (Is there ever anything new there?)

Friendly atmosphere. Good college with a good abroad program-but it's not for everyone. Students come and go all the time. It's necessary to find your own niche.

FADS...

ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST!

1980-'81 at Hollins meant the arrival of a new decade, a departure from the '70's, including New Wave, Surf Punk, Punk Rock, Devo, the B'52's, Elvis Costello, The Cars, Reggae, the pogo, The Blues Brothers, The Empire Strikes Back, Urban Cowboy, Megga bucks, B.I.O. classes, Go for it, Get psyched, bumper, blown out, cowboy hats, cowboy boots, designer jeans, french braids, purple, The ERA, No Nukes, Mt. St. Helen's, Toxic Shock Syndrome, "Cocaine," Bo Derek, Brooke Shields, Miss Piggy, Richard Gere, Honda Accord, VW Rabbit, Tab Cola What a Beautiful Drink and Have a Coke and a Smile.

T.G.I.F.

The week seemed to drag on and on and it's finally the weekend and the test was pretty hairy, but it's over now and the sun was shining and Kroger's had a sale on Tab and no one scheduled any meetings and there was heavenly hash ice cream at lunch and campus paychecks went out and Isn't it great to be alive? and iViva la Fiesta! and Thank God It's Friday.

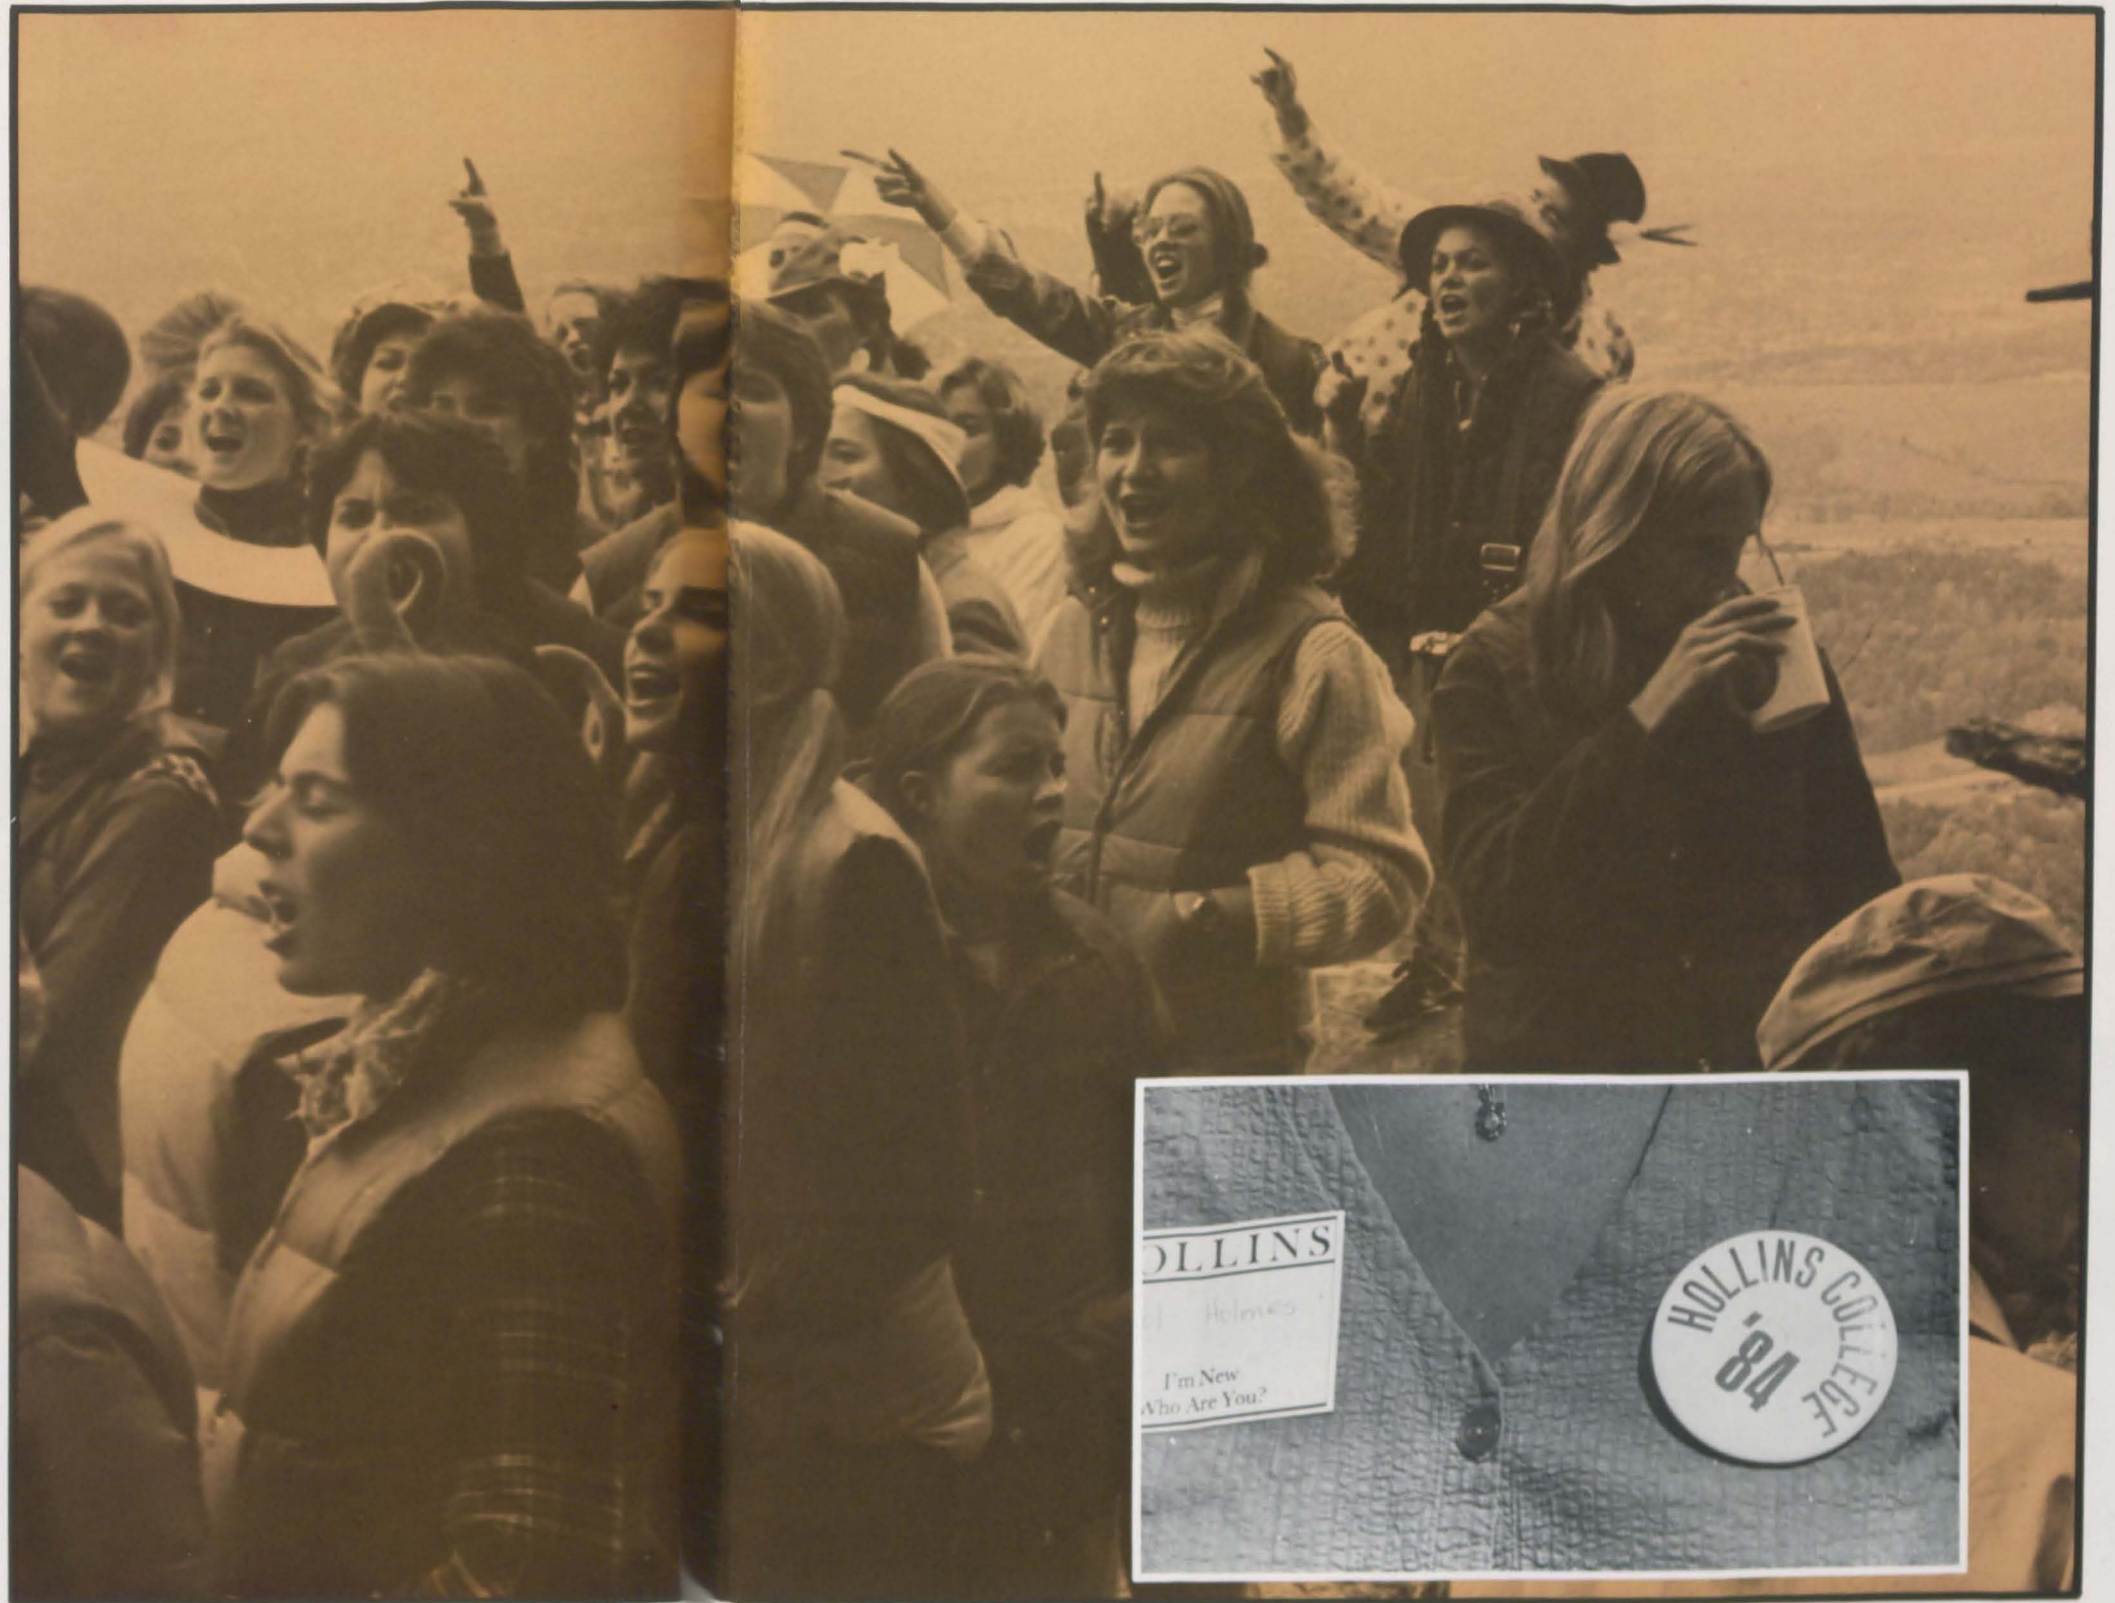

O.H.I.M.

The alarm clock didn't go off until 9:00 and there were no bagels and cream cheese for breakfast and the mailbox was empty and it rained and the phone didn't ring once and these dates with the library seem to be lasting longer and longer and who understands economics anyway? and boy, the weekend was a blast and Oh Hell, It's Monday.

From Monday to Friday it was a continuous cycle: It was dorm life, hill house life, apartment life and off-campus life; It was lots of early risings, cramming, and walking from Dana to Moody to Pleasants; Popcorn, watching t.v., playing frisbee and backgammon were all a part too, as well as "Will someone else please answer the hall phone?" and "It's 4:30-let's go to dinner;" and Hollins girls became victims of the soap opera mania. The channels switched from All My Children, General Hospital to Texas. Social life gossip began to sound like one big soap opera, and so were The Days Of Our Lives.

SENIORS

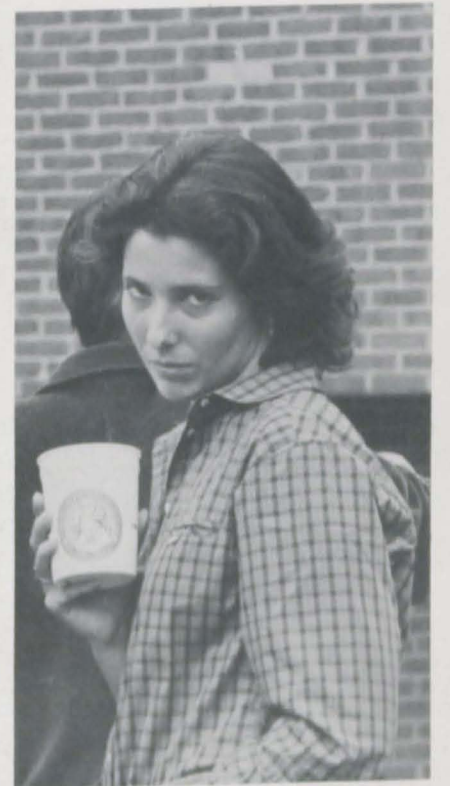

From the three great wings of Tinker Dorm
To the wild West, East, and Main.
To across the street to apartment life
How we wish we could remain.

With parties, roadtrips, kegs of beer
Academics on the side.
Honors, jobs, and M.R.S. degrees,
We will graduate in stride.

We've loved Hollins and the happy times,
Friends and memories fill the years.
It'll be sad for us to leave this school
Thoughts of past will bring some tears.

So long underclassmen, faculty,
Remember all the fun things we've done.
Hollins College you're the very best
Three cheers for '81 !!!!!!!!!!!!!

Paris' rooftops were lovely to see
Switzerland's vertical landscapes crossed my mind's eye just now.
Canada's shoreline has been
calling out to me
But it's been too long a time since last I crossed that vast
Nantucket Sound
Hello, old friend
Welcome me home again
I've been away but that's all over now . . .

The Pasture

I'm going out to clean the pasture spring;
I'll only stop to rake the leaves away
(And wait to watch the water clear, I may);
I sha'n't be gone long.-You come too.

I'm going out to fetch the little calf
That's standing by the mother. It's so young,
It totters when she licks it with her tongue.
I sha'n't be gone long.-You come too.

Hollins occupies a patch of land in the Shenandoah Valley midway between New York and Atlanta.
People live on the land; their business is learning.
The land is fertile. Elms, dogwood, and pine grow there. You may too - - and whether or not you do, is your responsibility.

So many faces
in and out of my life
Some will last, some will just
be now and then.
Life is a series
of hellos and goodbyes
I'm afraid it's time
for goodbye again . . .

French Film Festival

Hollins College
February 17-March 31, 1981

Tuesday, February 17
Pardon Mon Affaire

A lovable French comedy about four buddies who undergo a series of complicated romantic antics. In trying to keep their extramarital affairs "undercover," the comrades blunder their way through the streets and bedrooms of Paris, always returning in the nick of time to pull the least fortunate of their number out of the hot water he has gotten himself into. Directed by Yves Robert with Jean Rochefort and Claude Brasseur. (1977)

Tuesday, February 24
And Now My Love

A love story with a refreshing twist which relates the complicated genealogies and world events which have shaped two people who experience "love at first sight." Directed by Claude Lelouch with Marthe Keller, Andre Dussolier and Charles Denner. (1975)

Tuesday, March 3
Murmur Of The Heart

Fifteen-year-old Laurent is growing up in a household with two drunken, oversexed brothers, a warm Italian mother and a stern father. During treatment at a spa, his interest in girls turns into a sort of repressed, adolescent lust which his mother soothes. A film which captures the beauty of incest rather than its ugliness. Director by Louis Malle with Lea Massari and Daniel Gelin. (1972)

Tuesday, March 10
Blue Country

A refreshing, honest, romantic look at French lifestyles is portrayed in this droll comedy about a lovable group of eccentrics in a remote valley of southwest France. Directed by Jean-Charles Tacchella with Brigitte Fossey and Jacques Serres. (1977)

Wednesday, March 18
The Shameless Old Lady

Madame Bertini shocks her staid, stuffy and elderly-minded offspring by going out on her own after the death of her husband and attempting to learn something of the life that has passed her by. A funny and touching movie, The Shameless Old Lady is full of poignant "little" incidents that are in truth very large indeed. Directed by René Allio with Sylvie, Malka Ribovska and Etienne Bierry. (1964)

Tuesday, March 31
No Time For Breakfast

Annie Girardot won a César, the French Academy Award, for her moving performance as a dedicated doctor who must cope with a crisis in her personal life when she is suspected of having cancer. Directed by Jean-Louis Bertucelli with Annie Girardot, Jean-Pierre Cassel and Isabelle Huppert. (1976)

HAPPENINGS

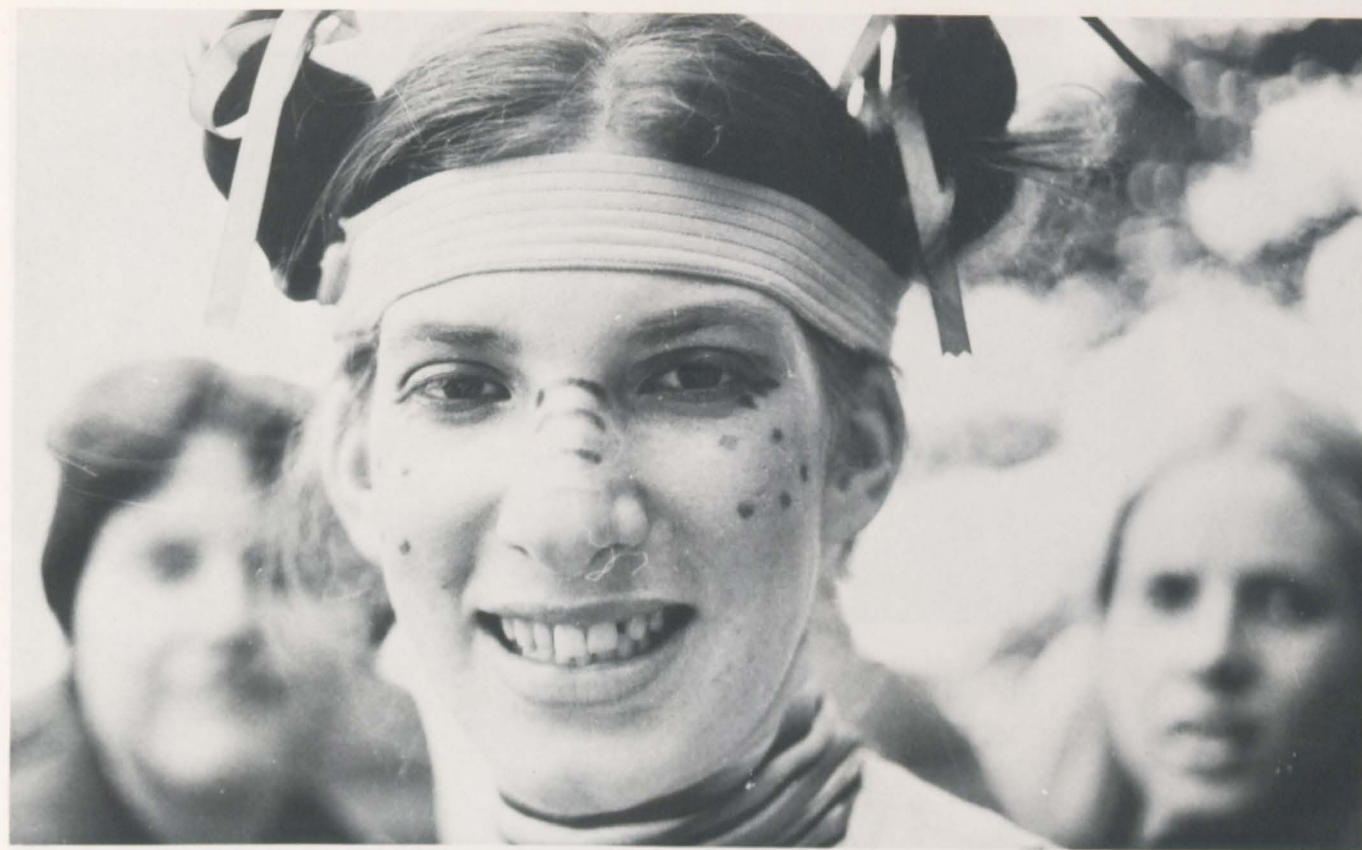

Oktoberfest

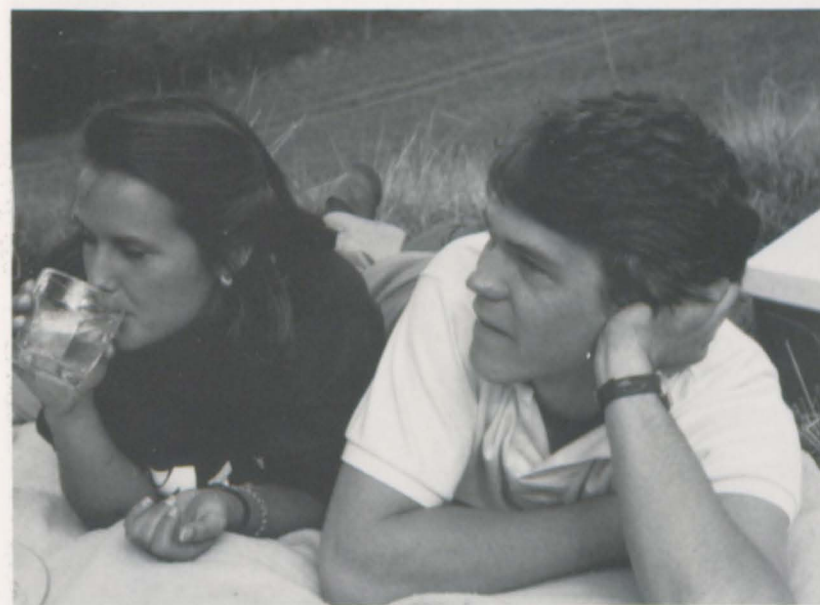

Tinker Day!

The year is nineteen hundred and eighty-one. Americans taken hostage in Iran have been released and Ronald Reagan is telling the American people that he will end inflation. (And also how much he likes jellybeans.) There is unrest in El Salvador while the threat of Soviet intervention lingers on. Scientists tell us that weather patterns are changing and the drought that caused so many water shortages on the east coast is now causing problems in hydroelectric production.

Prince Charles has married Lady Diana Spencer. The state of Montana has voted to raise their speed limit to 70 mph. Roman Polanski has released his new three hour film, Tess, and in Atlanta the search continues for the killer(s) of sixteen black children. Ted Erikson, Mendocino County, California's agricultural commissioner, has completed the annual crop report-but his bosses will not let him release it as it reads now: marijuana patches provided for more farm income in Mendocino County ($90 million in 1979) than any other cultivated crop. John Lennon is dead and George, Paul and Ringo are on the Caribbean island of Montserrat creating something in his memory, while Lennon's fans are trying to make him a saint. The University of Virginia has lost its first place standing in basketball while Oregon State takes the lead. The 76ers are winning in Philadelphia, the Hawks are losing in Atlanta and an earthquake rumbles in Athens.

Outside a bird calls and a tree is budding. K92 FM blares from an open window and local traffic is thick on Route 11. The sound of Bach drifts out of Presser to mingle with the soft ping of tennis balls. Seniors are walking around front quad and small pathways on campus for what may be the last time. The smells of dormitories, fig trees, the post office and paint will remain in their senses like honey stuck to the side of a jar. If it were nighttime lights would flicker through branches being blown by a light wind, forming endless shadows and shapes.

You're listening to Hollins College.
